

THE SERVICE LEARNING PROGRAM

FLORIDA STATE UNIVERSITY

FACULTY

STUDENTS

COMMUNITY-BASED ORGANIZATIONS

- ENHANCED STUDENT LEARNING
 - INCREASED STUDENT CIVIC RESPONSIBILITY
 - COMMUNITY-BASED SCHOLARSHIP-teaching, service, and research
 - STUDENT LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT
- TO
- ADDRESS COMMUNITY PROBLEMS
AND SOCIAL ISSUES

In coordination with faculty, students, and community partners, as well as administrators and staff. It is the mission of the FSU Service Learning Program to support the integration of community service (service learning) in the academic curriculum by working very closely with faculty, and to foster partnerships with community-based agencies in order to:

- enhance student learning and development
- encourage student civic responsibility
- foster community-based scholarship teaching, service, and research
- provide for student leadership development
- address identified community problems and social issues

For additional information on the Service Learning Program, please contact
Marsha K. Turner, Ph.D., Director of Service Learning / Center for Civic Education and Service
850.644.3174 / mturner@admin.fsu.edu